

Dan Reid

Dan has worked in the dairy sector for over ten years. His account management experience spans time working for Dairycrest, First Milk, Cotteswold Dairy and Enterprise Foods.

Over the last decade, Dan has been involved in all aspects of dairy supplies, working with suppliers of all sizes, wholesalers and contract catering companies on supply management, pricing and performance. During this time, he has developed an in-depth knowledge of the dairy industry and an expertise in market trends.

Over the last four years, Dan has not only been working in the dairy sector but also in the bakery sector and we are delighted to be benefitting from his knowledge of this thriving market.

Passionately interested in both dairy and bakery, Dan is available to discuss and advise on buying policies and suppliers in these sectors.
